English news is scarce and unimportant, the question of home rule for Ireland being the principal one in political circles.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

The examination of the Prince Albert High School was conducted by written papers on Monday and Tuesday last. We believe that the pupils have been making very satisfactory progress in their studies, and that the examination has been highly creditable to them and to their teachers. It must be a great satisfaction to the pupils of Prince Albert to know that a first-class English and classical education is now within the reach of their children without leaving the town. We give underneath the names of those who made the highest number of marks in the different subjects. School work will be resumed after the holidays, on Monday, Jan. 11, 1896.

CHRISTMAS

We had almost forgotten that the Christmas season had arrived, if it were not for the Sunday School subscription lists which have been going the rounds. Nothing in the weather would remind us of the 25th of December, but rather of an approach of spring. Yet Christmas is again upon us, with all its joys and sorrows, for although it is the joyous season of the year, it seldom arrives without bringing to some home a sad remembrance. Some vacant chair, vacant perhaps through the temporary absence of one who was there last Christmas, or vacant perhaps through death, reminds us all that in this world there is seldom any pleasure unmixt with pain. We believe that it is only to children that the present season can be called one of joy, and to them the expectation is often filled with hopes that are never realized.

If we stand for a moment and look back over the past year we will survey a scene the saddest in our history, but one mixed with many pleasant memories, with some expectations realized, and a year during which great strides have been made forward by our town. No one can look at the Prince Albert of today, and after remembering what we were and what we have passed through, but what will say that the future is full of hope, and the coming year will, we are sure, do much towards realizing our expectations. During the past year we have lost some of our most familiar faces, and although their places have been taken by others in the business of the town, they can never be filled in the hearts of their friends. It is this feeling that makes this Christmas, which otherwise would have been the happiest in our history, a very sorrowful one to many amongst us. To those of our readers who have the misfortune to be bachelors the Christmas season is not likely to bring such good cheer as to those families who have the wife and mother at their head, and we doubt not but that many a homesome man will vow that next Christmas will not find him without the comforts of a home. If our space would allow it we would like to review the improvements and additions which have been made to our town during the past year, but this we will have to reserve for a future issue. We wish all of our readers a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year, and we sincerely trust that the difficulties under which THE P. A. TIMES has been laboring during the past year will vanish with the new year, so that we may meet the wants of all our patrons.

The Mantolban says Riel's remains have been quietly interred, and the corporal presence of the ex-metis leader will no longer be a source of embarrassment. It is satisfactory to know that the ceremonies, which were entirely of a religious character, were not interrupted with, and that nothing occurred to further excite public feeling.

Lieut.-Gov. Dewdney has given a written guarantee to Mr. O. E. Hughes, Member for Lorne, that the half-breeds who had identified themselves with the late rebellion will not be prosecuted or interfered with by the Government. They will, however, be open to prosecution for any stolen property in their possession.

Mr. O. E. Hughes, M.N.W.C., has been a faithful and trustworthy representative of the District of Lorne and the Territories generally, and has taken a deep interest in all matters pertaining to the rights of the people. The substance of a long resolution moved by Mr. Hughes, and seconded by Mr. Percy, of Walsley, referring to the advisability of settling the legitimate claims of settlers rendered destitute by the late rebellion, has been written by Lieut. Governor Dewdney to the Secretary of State at Ottawa. The Council are determined to see those claims paid as soon as possible.

The North West Council, the members of which must be given credit for thoroughly comprehending the situation, has passed the following resolution: "Advising, in strong terms, the action of the Dominion Government in allowing the law to take its course in Riel's case:— 'Whereas public meetings have been held in certain portions of the Dominion, at which it was sought to condemn the Dominion Government for allowing the sentence of the Court to be carried into effect in the case of Louis Riel, who had stirred up rebellion among the half-breeds and Indians in these Territories, and who, after a fair and impartial trial by a competent tribunal, was convicted of high treason. And whereas the peace, progress and prosperity of these Territories would have been jeopardized and a feeling of insecurity would have existed among the settlers had the man twice guilty of rebellion and who had not shrunk from the terrible responsibility of inciting the half-breeds and Indians to armed insurrection been permitted to escape the just penalty for his misdeed. And whereas a fair, firm and impartial administration of the law must be had, if the laws of our country are to be respected by all classes irrespective of nationality; therefore this Council desires to place on record its endorsement of the action of the Dominion Government in allowing the sentence of the Court to be carried into effect.

EDMONTON.

From the Bulletin.

Hay is being delivered in town at $10 per ton.

The H. B. Co's mill has been grinding this week.

G. A. Watson is removing his law office to the Big hotel.

A police detachment for this post is on the way from Regina.

The new bakery will make its first issue of the staff of life on Wednesday.

Wolves are reported to be very numerous, and the fur catch generally promises to be large.

It is rumored that Blackfoot runners are among the Crees at Prince Albert inciting them to rebellion.

The H. B. Co. are offering $1 a bushel for No. 1 wheat, 50c for barley, and 60c for oats, all trade.

It is estimated that the Militia Department accounts remaining unpaid in this district amount to nearly $12,000.

Hog raising is becoming an important industry in this settlement. Lately Mr. D. Ross killed 70 hogs, 32 of which averaged 150 pounds apiece dressed. He has 40 on hand yet.

W. S. Robertson returned on Sunday evening with his strayed team of horses. They were found near Battle river, at the outlet of the Crooked lake.

QU'APPELLE.

From the Vidette.

St. John's church will be consecrated on St. John's day, Sunday, the 27th.

The first real cold dip passed over this district the beginning of this week—thermometer down to 10° below, it is said.

Mr. R. Stephenson has been inspecting the Touchwood Qu'Appelle Land and Colonization Company's lands during the past week.

The flour mill is giving universal satisfaction; but, unfortunately, they have had to shut down owing to the bursting of the boiler. It is being repaired, and will be in running order in a few days.

Mrs. French's claim has been passed by the commission. She will receive a gratuity of about $7,000 and an annual allowance of about $500; and the children will be provided for until they are 16 and 21 respectively.

CALGARY.

From the Herald.

We understand that a project for a public hospital, to be erected on the Government site, has been set on foot, and that considerable donations have been already made towards it.

The sale of town lots on the Government site is still going on very steadily. Up to this date 280 double lots (50x130) have been disposed of at an average price of $70. We hear that the Government have notified the Corporation that they are ready to transfer to the town that part of the site from Fourth street through to the western boundary of the section, to be held in trust as a park reserve.

A prominent Hamilton firm, whose name is withheld for the present, is thinking of opening up a wholesale store and agricultural implement manufactory in Calgary presently. We extend a hearty welcome to the newcomers, and believe they will have an excellent field here.

THE MANITOBA WEEKLY FREE PRESS.

THE MONARCH OF THE WEEKLIES.

14th YEAR OF PUBLICATION 14th.

CAMPAIGN 1885-1886.

Magnificent Premiums and Grand Prize Scheme.

Over $1,400 worth of Handsome Prizes to be given away.
100 Splendid Prizes.

Balance of 1885 FREE. Only $2 to 1887.

THE GREATEST OFFER YET MADE.

As no former period in the history of the Manitoba Weekly Free Press have the publishers made their annual announcement with as great a desire of confidence in the subscribers as large an increase of circulation or with as liberal offers to intending subscribers as in presenting this announcement for the campaign of 1885-1886.

The Weekly Free Press is now entering upon its fourteenth year of publication, and at no time in its history has it been as popular as it is today, or enjoyed a greater measure of confidence from the people of the Canadian Northwest.

From its inception up to the present time the Free Press has always recognized the cause of the North-west, being the uncompromising defender of its best interests, following whatever course was likely to improve its condition or develop its great resources and opposing whatever is calculated to injure this magnificent country.

For the past fourteen years the Free Press has been the leading paper in the Northwest. The Weekly Free Press is the largest paper published in Canada. It is a per se evidence, the strength of the country. Every issue contains all the Local, Provincial, Territorial and Foreign News of the week, of special interest to the people of the Northwest. In the future no effort or expense will be spared to maintain for it its present proud position, and every year improvements will be introduced whenever possible.

The great aim of the publishers of the Free Press at the present time is, if possible, to double the already magnificent circulation, and extraordinary inducements are therefore presented to subscribe.

As a first inducement the balance of the current year from any time hereafter, will be given free to all subscribers who send in one year's subscription—$2—that is over fifteen months, or to January 1, 1887. Do not forget this great advantage.

But apart from the excellent value of over fifteen months of the Weekly Free Press at the price of one year's subscription, the publishers have decided upon giving as a very extra inducement one hundred grand prizes, aggregating over $1,400 worth of valuable goods from the leading retail houses of Winnipeg, in their respective lines, among their subscribers.

The prize scheme will be conducted upon the same principle on which the monarch, each prize of $50, $100 and $200 were allotted to our subscribers in the last campaign, and which gave such universal satisfaction. All subscribers on our subscription list on the fifteenth day of January next, will be eligible to win a prize, and no subscriber will be eligible to win a prize for the competition, and will participate in the prize scheme. The prizes will be awarded to the one hundred and fifty subscribers and the different articles to be awarded to them.

For full details of the Grand Prize List see the Weekly Free Press or obtain a circular at any postoffice in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

It is only necessary to send over our prize list to be fully persuaded that it is the greatest gift enterprise ever introduced into the Canadian Northwest, and the grandest opportunity ever offered to the people of this country for obtaining valuable and handsome prizes.

The different articles for the Prize List have been selected with the greatest care, and, owing to their low cost from the leading houses in Winnipeg, they may be thoroughly relied upon. The values placed upon each prize in the list is the lowest retail price of the goods in Winnipeg, and the various articles of excellent value for the prices named.

Let every one consider well the advantages of subscribing now. The Weekly Free Press, which universally acknowledged to be the best value in the Northwest for the regular price of $2 a year, to be obtained over fifteen months for that sum, and the chance of securing one of the appreciated prize offers.

The Weekly Free Press should be found in every household in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories. It is the paper to subscribe for and send to friends abroad.

Remember the fact that those who subscribe the earliest get the most for their money, as
Two Dollars—cash in advance—from the date of subscribing to the first of January, 1887.

Complimentary Supper

To W. Pearce, Esq., D.L.C.

A very pleasant and enjoyable time was spent on Thursday evening at the Central Restaurant, the occasion being a complimentary supper given to Wm. Pearce, Esq.

About sixty sat down to the tables, among whom were—Couns. Bratnoler, Brown and Betts; J. Stewart, W. V. MacIsaac, D. McMillan, F. C. Baker, Capt. Craig, Capt. Hoy, Col. Sprout, G. S. Davison, T. N. Campbell, G. D. Northgrave, Geo. McLeod, D. J. Waggoner, Geo. Duck, L. Schmidt, A. H. Clark, J. M. Rae, H. J. Montgomery, J. G. Parker, A. McNabb, W. J. Barker, S. McLeod, A. Landon, J. L. Johnson, R. Gwynne, J. C. Mackenzie, T. O. Davis, J. F. A. Stull and others.

The chair was occupied by W. Miller, President of Lorne Agricultural Society, and to his right sat Mr. Pearce, the guest of the evening.

The vice-chair was occupied by Col. Sprout.

After all had partaken of the abundance of good things provided by the caterer, Mr. Oram, the chairman read letters of apology from Messrs. Belanger, Kennedy, Hart, Agnew and Spence, regretting their inability to be present.

The Chairman then proposed "The Queen and Royal Family," which was duly honored.

The next toast proposed was the "Governor General and Lieutenant Governor," which was loudly cheered.

Mr. J. L. Johnson then sang a song, which was loudly applauded.

"The Army, Navy and Volunteers" was then proposed, and was ably responded to by Col. Sprout and Capt. Hoy.

The Chairman then proposed "Our Guest," and in doing so, spoke in very flattering terms of Mr. Pearce as an efficient and worthy official. These sentiments were concurred in by Col. Sprout and Capt. Hoy.

Mr. Pearce, on rising, was loudly cheered. He thanked them for the very kind manner in which they had received him, and said that on one or two occasions he wished he was an orator. When he accepted the invitation to be present here it was on condition that he was to do no speaking. He thanked the Agricultural Society for the very kind reception given him to-day, and said he had always taken a great interest in agricultural societies, being the son of a farmer, and hoped some day to go farming. He then spoke of meeting the Agricultural Society the day before, and said he hoped to aid them in getting their request.

In regard to the Prince Albert Volunteers, he said he would lay his views before the Government. He spoke of the Hon. Mr. White, and how highly pleased he was with the reception he had received from the people of Prince Albert. He thought Mr. White was the right man in the right place. In speaking of Mr. White's predecessor, Sir David Macpherson, he said he was a hard worker and a well-wisher of the Dominion, especially the North West, and had to give up the portfolio on account of ill health. He considered himself an old timer in this country, having spent eight winters of camp life in it. For the last four years he was connected with the Land Board. He then alluded to his first visit to Prince Albert, and the pleasing circumstances under which he first met the worthy chairman. He referred briefly to Mr. Lindsay Russell, chairman of the North West Land Commission, and said that the delay in the settlement of the land claims was owing to the ill health of that gentleman. After a very neat and pleasing speech, which he considered the longest he had ever made, he took his seat amidst a round of cheers.

Col. Sprout, vice chairman, proposed the "Prosperity of the Town of Prince Albert," coupled with the names of Councillors Betts, Brown and Bratnoler.

Mr. T. Parker then sang "Hearts of Oak" in his usual good style.

Mr. J. Stewart proposed the "Bar," which was very neatly responded to by Mr. McMillan.

"Agriculture and Commerce" was proposed by Col. Sprout, coupled with the names of Messrs. Waggoner, Craig, Stewart and Betts.

Mr. W. J. Barker then sang "The Old Mulberry Tree."

Mr. J. L. Johnson, being called upon, made a short but neat speech, which was followed by a song from Mr. D. J. Waggoner.

"The Ladies" was next proposed, coupled with the names of Messrs. Holmes, Campbell and Clark.

"The Press" was then proposed and responded to by Mr. Stull.

"Our Host" was replied to in a very able and humorous manner by Mr. A. McNabb.

Capt. Hoy proposed the "President of the Lorne Agricultural Society," to which Mr. Miller ably replied.

"Government Officials" was next proposed, coupled with the names of Messrs. Rae, Duck, Schmidt and Montgomery.

The last toast proposed was our "Absent Friends," coupled with the names of Hon. L. Clarke, Capt. Moore and Macdonald.

After singing "Auld Lang Syne," all bid Mr. Pearce farewell, who then took his departure.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.

The Dramatic Club entertainment by the North West Mounted Police took place at the Hudson Bay warehouse, steamboat landing, on Friday evening last and was largely attended, there being about 300 present.

The building was neatly seated and beautifully decorated with flags and evergreens. The stage was very artistically arranged, and reflected great credit upon the taste of the members of the club. The programme consisted of two parts. The first part was opened with an overture by the Prince Albert Cornet Band, and was well rendered. The song "Scotch Lassie Jean," by Const. W. Jones was well received and deservedly encored. Const. J. H. L. Bessange sang "En Chasse" in a strong and powerful voice, and was encored. "Sailing," by Const. J. Thompson, was well received, and to an encore sang "Warrior's Bold." The "Lionel Watch" was very well rendered by Const. Jones and Thompson, and was encored. The "Quack Doctor," a recitation by Const. J. Thompson, brought forth storms of applause, and to an encore recited in his inimitable style the "Lancashire Darling."

The second part of the programme consisted of a farce entitled "Raising the Wind." This part of the entertainment was apparently very interesting to all. Some of the characters were well pegged, particularly Pinaway, Peggy's father, by Sergt. Walker, Jeremy Bulbler, Perry's lover, by Corp. Mervin Sam, a Yorkshireman, by Const. W. Jones, and Miss Laura Durable, an old maid, by Const. T. H. G. O'Brien. The entertainment was very good, and as it is the intention of the Dramatic Club to give a series of entertainments during the winter months, we have no doubt they will be pleasing and interesting. We regret very much that a disturbance took place outside of the building by some members of the Police force and by some civilians, but we are glad to know that Capt. Perry has meted out the law to the offenders connected with the force. We are assured that in the future proper precaution will be taken so that such an occurrence will not again take place.
